By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, April 18.—The peace treaty may not be presented to the Germans before April 28, according to the present developments. It is said the German delegation will arrive on April 25. The fact that the following day is Saturday and there is talk of an executive session of the big four, at which the treaty will be given a final scrutiny before being handed to the German envoys, made it appear today that the treaty would not be in the Germans' hands before April 28.

It is not believed the German newspaper reports will be considered as true. The Germans will not be hampered in sending their articles by censorship.

With their holds to capacity with food supplies they are making record runs to points in Northern and Southern Europe, where the spectre of starvation has stalked since the beginning of the war. Runs are being made from New York, Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Norfolk and other American ports for Rotterdam, Antwerp, London, Bordeaux, Constantinople and other ports on the North Sea, the Mediterranean and the Adriatic.

Almost daily, it was stated, these vessels, which only a few months ago were mere skeletons of steel on the launching ways, are unloading thousands of tons of food into ports of countries, where the food need is apparent.

His body was picked up a short distance from the station. The remains were taken in charge by Coroner E. A. Kelly. The boy lived with his parents near what is known as the Black Pond, back of West Park.

SEAL BONE INDUSTRY.

Government Making Vast Sum From Pribiloff Deposits.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, April 18.—American built catamaran factories are now being shipped to the Pribiloff Islands, where they will be used for pulling loads of products of these far north regions over the four miles of sands, which have to be traversed to the nearest shipping point, Secretary of Commerce Redfield announced today. The catamarans are being shipped on the steamship Roosevelt, which will bring back seal bones. Bids for 200,000 tons of seal bones were opened last week and it was announced that the government would receive not less than $14 per ton as a result of the bids. Secretary Redfield explained that the money received for seal bones was practically all profit to the government, the only cost being the labor of digging them out of the ground. One deposit alone in the Pribiloff Islands is known to be more than a mile and a half long and seven feet deep. The Roosevelt is also carrying grinders and the bones will be converted into fertilizer before shipment.

Oculist Faker Busy.

An oculist faker is busy in Newburgh and may later come to Kingston. According to the stories told in Newburgh a stranger will go to a home in the country district and ask if there are in the household any whose glasses need adjusting or who require new lenses. ## ADRIATIC PROBLEMS TAKE FIRST PLACE

In Deliberations of Big Four—Orlando Insistent—Best Guess on Irish Question is That Wilson's Attitude is Unchanged.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, April 18.—The knottiest remaining problem facing the big four—the Italian-Jugoslav territorial claims on Adriatic coast—was taken up by President Wilson and the premiers today. Premier Lloyd-George, who has just returned from his triumph in London sat in his regular place.

Premier Orlando of Italy again insisted that Plume must be ceded to the Italians, otherwise the 2,700 Italian residents "would suffer."

Three alternatives were discussed: The turning over of the port to the Italians, internationalization or cession to the Jugoslavs.

There has been no announcement as to the conference between President Wilson and Frank P. Walsh, representing the Friends of Ireland in America, at the Parisian White House yesterday. It is impossible even to guess where the solution of the Irish question will end. It was stated today. The president was just as silent himself. It is generally believed that the president will present the question to Premier Lloyd-George as it was outlined to him by Mr. Walsh. Officials close to President Wilson declared that his position as outlined on the Irish question early in March remains unchanged.

JAP PRESS MAKES WITHDRAWAL THREAT

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Tokio, April 18.—The newspaper threat is made here that Japan must withdraw from the League of Nations unless racial discrimination is abolished.

There is high feeling as a result of the recent troubles in Tien Tsin between Japanese and American troops. The Japanese are suspicious of America's regard for commercial designs and diplomats and are accusing American diplomats of responsibility for the disclosure of the secret agreements between this country and China. It is alleged by the Japanese press that American firms are supplying the Chinese with arms, while the Japanese are forbidden to do so. The newspaper Hochi says the Americans "take every opportunity to persecute the Japanese."

ESTABLISH SHAD REFUGE HERE

Conservation Commission Sets Aside Area From Kingston Point to Bortytown in Which Spawning Fish May Not Be Distributed By Fishermen.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, April 18 (Special)—A shad refuge in Hudson river has been set aside by the Conservation Commission as the result of a petition submitted by the shad fishermen themselves for an area of safety on the spawning ground of the fish, where no fishing should be permitted. The spawning ground selected is known as the "Flats" and begins at the red buoy north of Kingston Point and continues in a northern direction to the red buoy opposite the village of Bortytown.

According to the new order just issued by the Conservation Commission, no nets of any kind shall be set, placed, drawn on or in any way used on these shoals from March 15 to June 15, both dates inclusive. This action follows a hearing on the subject conducted by Commissioner Pratt at Saugerties, at which the fishermen testified that the "Flats" are the natural breeding ground of the shad and should be left undisturbed throughout the shad spawning season.

Predicts Old-Time Shad Runs.

The new regulation, together with that inaugurated by the Conservation Commission last year, which forbids the use of shad nets in the Hudson between Friday night and Monday morning, and thus gives the fish a chance to reach their spawning grounds, will be of tremendous value, says Commissioner Pratt, in bringing back to the Hudson its most prized food fish. Commissioner Pratt called attention to the encouraging run of shad last year, which was larger than in many previous seasons, and says that with the working of the new provisions and with the beneficial results of the commission's campaign against pollution, the future of the shad in the Hudson should be assured.

SOCIALISTS RAISE RACKET FOR DEBS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Cleveland, April 18.—Cleveland Socialists today began circulating hand bills agitating the release of Eugene V. Debs, now serving a ten years' sentence in the federal prison at Moundsville, W. Va., on a charge of sedition.

"Debs is in prison. Join this protest demonstration at Five Points, St. Clair and East 152nd street, tonight at 8," reads one of the bills, which were placed in the hands of workers on the street this morning. Raise your voice for Debs as he has often fearlessly raised his for you. Spread the news of this demonstration. The time is short. Every worker must help. The workers must come by the thousands, reads another of the doggers.

Under heavy police guard last night hundreds of workers joined in a protest parade through the city. They carried banners: "Freedom for Debs, freedom for Mooney, freedom for political and industrial prisoners."

The parade followed a meeting in Socialist Hall, in which the audience was instructed to "remain on the firing line."

As the parade made its way to public square, the marchers cried praises for Debs, Mooney, the Bolshevik and Liebknecht. Some soldiers standing along the line of march cried derision, others standing quietly gave moody consent to the demonstration.

The crowd dispersed after a speech at the public square by E. E. Rutenber, former Socialist candidate for mayor of Cleveland, who now candidly is causing concern in the rural political camps of the city.

PLAN TO MERGE HUDSON VALLEY ELECTRIC RESOURCES

Petition Filed With Public Service Commission to Connect Wires of Three Companies, Purchase Kingston G. and E. Stock and Build Generating Plant at Rifton.

The United Hudson Electric Corporation filed a petition with the Public Service Commission, Second District, Thursday, April 17, 1919, asking consent to own and operate a transmission line to connect with the systems of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company, the Ulster Electric Light, Heat & Power Company and Upper Hudson Electric & Railroad Co., also to construct a hydro-electric generating plant and to purchase the capital stock of the Rifton Land Corporation, the Kingston Gas and Electric Company, and a majority of the capital stock of the Upper Hudson Electric & Railroad Company.

Plan in Interest of Economy.

The petition of the United Hudson Company is the outcome of a plan, previous reports of which have been published, that was developed before the country entered the war, by three electric companies operating in contiguous territory in the Central Hudson Valley, for the purpose of effecting economies in the generation of electric current by interconnection, and to make available their combined resources. The original plan was taken up with the Public Service Commission over a ## Government Aids Inter-Connection.

As soon as this country entered the war, the federal government appointed commissions for the conservation of coal. The commission in this state as well as those in other states in the country, took up the question of securing the inter-connection between the various electric transmission systems in order to save coal. Through their efforts in New York state several notable developments have been made in this regard; the most interesting of which is the recent case of the merger and consolidation of the Adirondack Electric Power Corp. with the companies at Schenectady, Amsterdam, Fulton, Montgomery, Rensselaer, etc., by consent of the Public Service Commission. In other states, the government has helped finance the inter-connection of some of the largest power companies in the country, in order to bring to industrial centers the advantages of low cost of production and remote water powers.

The plan of the United Hudson Electric Corporation is in line with this method of modern practice and suggests great possibilities for the industrial development of the Central Hudson Valley.

HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE TOWN

The Stroller Hears of a Kingston Resident Who Never Saw a Day Line Steamer, the Stuyvesant Hotel or the New Theater—No, He is Not Blind.

"One thing I notice in my walks about town," said the customer as he entered the barber shop, "and that is that there are a number of streets that have no street signs, and it makes it rather confusing, especially if you have not walked on that street in years."

"I have noticed the same thing myself," replied the busy barber, "but the trouble is every one is too busy to look after the street signs."

"Well somebody ought to get busy and see that signs are erected where needed," retorted the customer.

"Speaking of street signs," said the barber, "reminds me of the fact that a man was in getting a shave this morning and remarked that a friend of his had never seen a Day Line boat, the Stuyvesant Hotel or the new theater, and a few other things I have forgotten."

"Did he ever see the Skillypot?" queried the customer, with a grin.

"That is one of the things he has seen, but who has not?" replied the barber, "but strange as it may seem this resident has lived here about all his life, and yet there are certain sections of the city he has never set foot on, or seen."

"What's the catch?" asked the customer.

"What do you mean?" retorted the barber.

"Well I tell for it," said the customer, resignedly. "I suppose you are going to spring an alleged joke that the resident is blind."

"And that is where you are mistaken," replied the barber, "for he has as good eyesight as you have."

"How is it that he has never seen the things you mention then?" asked the customer.

"The way I understand it," replied the barber, "he has always been in business, and gets but little spare time off from his work. When he does have time off he likes to spend it rambling in the woods."

"Who is he?" asked the customer.

"That is for you to guess," replied the barber, with a grin.

MURAD

THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

You may hunt the world over—but you cannot find a cigarette to take the place of Murad.

The tobacco in Murad is 100% pure Turkish—and Turkish is the most famous of all tobaccos for cigarettes.

It is true that "ordinary" cigarettes cost a trifle less.

vacation with relatives in New York city.

needy public, and by doing his work well he is in great demand by the people of the surrounding county.

Earl Eckert, the new creamery manager, has moved in the house of Mrs. J. Roosa at Allgerville.

GULS IN A GOOD HUNTING COUNTRY

Accord Soldier With 51st Pioneer
In Germany Writes of Recreation to be Found by Army of Occupation.

Mrs. Fred Hendrickson of Accord, N. Y., has received a letter from her brother, Private Preston Enderly, who is now stationed at Guls, Germany:

February 16, 1919.

Dear Sister:—Just a few lines to let you know that I have received your letter and was very glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this letter will find all of you the same.

I received a letter from Pearl this week and one from you the same day. I would like very much to be home for that entertainment. Would like to get there just about the time that they started the play. I would surprise the whole bunch of them. The weather is very strange over here. It has been very cold for a few days and now it is much warmer. But we have had very little snow. I have been to Coblenz twice this week. Last Wednesday I was to a fast ball game over there and Thursday I went over with two horses and brought them back. I haven't done any guard duty lately but we are drilling a little every day except Saturdays and Sundays. There is four companies in this place now and there is about one thousand soldiers besides the officers. Last Monday they gave us a pass to go to Coblenz. There went fifty out of each company. I had a good time and did not get back until nine thirty that night. It is a nice place, something like Kingston. We had to cross the Mosel river in a boat and then we walked the rest of the way; it is about two miles from Guls. I have been to a show and a band concert since I have been over here. There is a Y M C A. in this place where we can get tobacco and chocolate. I am still living in the house with the two old German people, but am not sleeping on straw any more. I have a good bed and sleep very well nights. There is plenty of wine over here but it is too much for me. Tell Fred if he wants to hunt that this is the place to get the game. Last week we scared six deer out of the woods and quite a number of rabbits. I do not know when I will get home but I do not think it will be so very long more now. Write to me soon and tell all of my friends I would be very glad to hear from any of them. From your

BROTHER

Private Preston G. Enderly, Co. G, 51st Pioneer Infantry, American Expeditionary Forces, A. P. O. 775.

On Active Service With the American Expeditionary Force, March 9th, 1919.

Dear Sister—Just a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope that you folks are the same. The weather is very nice here now. We have not had much snow and what did come only stayed one day. The other day I saw a German setting out cabbage plants but I do not think that they will amount to anything for it is most too cold yet.

Last Monday night there was four American Y M C A. girls from Coblenz that gave an entertainment in the hall and Tuesday night the 51st Pioneer Follies gave a show and Wednesday night there was moving pictures in the same place, so we have had something going on this week.

I got a letter from Mary yesterday morning and I have to write to her today. Last Friday I got a letter from pa and answered it right back and also received the card of Lulu. Tell her that I will send her a card just as soon as I get one. Mary wrote and told me that Jesse and Gertrude were going housekeeping by themselves. I think that they would be better off don't you?

I am writing this letter in the Y. M. C. A. but can't hardly write for there is so much noise. The piano is going to beat the band and the people talking. I am still in Guls yet but do not know how long that I will be here. Do not think that we will get to the states before this summer some time and may be it might be fall. I will close for this time. Hoping to hear from you soon. Be sure to write.

PRESTON ENDERLY,
Co. G, 51st Pioneer Infantry,

90 CENT POTATOES CUT DOWN ACREAGE

Farmers Turn Attention to Other Crops Which Pay Better, Reports Indicate—Cabbage Acreage Also Less.

With potatoes selling at a low figure in comparison with other farm products, New York farmers appear to be turning their attention to other crops. Growers in some of the important producing sections are now receiving less than 90 cents a bushel.

The result will probably be a reduction of 30,000 acres in the area planted to potatoes in this state this year unless the growers change their plans soon. Reports from 500 farmers received by the extension service of the New York State College of Agriculture show that the farmers of the state plan to decrease the potato acreage 7 per cent below last year and 12 per cent below 1917.

The acreage of cabbage also is expected to be reduced about 4 per cent, or 2,000 acres, as a result of the unfavorable prices of last season's crop. A sharp reduction in beans is also likely, but no exact figures are as yet available.

Total Acreage Slightly Less.

With farm wages high and most farm products selling for less than their recent war-time levels, many farmers are inclined to restrict their acreage to what they can handle with little or no hired help. Present indications, however, are that taking the state as a whole, the total acreage of all crops grown will be only about 2 1/2 per cent less than last year.

The hay acreage is expected to be reduced a little over 2 per cent. Silage corn will probably be increased slightly, except in some of the northern counties where much difficulty was experienced in harvesting the crop last fall on account of wet weather.

The last two seasons have been unusually favorable to spring wheat and it has been expected in some quarters that the fixed price would cause a large increase in that crop this year. The average reports mentioned above indicate that while there will be increases in some of the important wheat counties in the western part of the state, there will be less spring wheat planted in the state this year than last. During the war it must be remembered many farmers in localities not suited to wheat production have been growing the crop for patriotic reasons only. Now that the war is over they will return to more accustomed crops.

BROADWAY CROSSING PLANS ON VIEW

Thursday afternoon blue prints showing another proposed plan for eliminating the Broadway crossing were placed on view with the Broadway crossing models in the common council chamber at the city hall. The blue print was prepared by the New York Central Railroad and shows a detour plan starting at Dederick street and passing about midway between the present railroad station and Broadway and coming out at the intersection of Broadway and Cornell street.

Two blue prints are also shown in connection with the proposed plan for depressing Broadway under the railroad tracks and provide for pedestrians leaving Broadway and entering the proposed new station. Also an arrangement for a new driveway approaching the railroad station from down town so as to make it unnecessary for traffic on the way to the railroad station having to pass through the Broadway subway.

The plans are worth viewing and will remain on exhibition together with the crossing models.

KERHONKSON.

Kerhonkson, April 17.—On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Burger delightedly entertained at their home Dr. and Mrs. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barringer. The guests left at a late hour declaring Mr. and Mrs. Burger royal entertainers.

Mrs. Anna Hoy and Miss Ida Shaw of Port Ewen are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shaw.

Miss Marian Kingman was a guest of her cousin, Miss Frances Brink, Wednesday.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions, the children and those having charge of the entertainment Wednesday evening were not disappointed in their audience. Lake Katrine was well represented, also Kingston and Mt. Marion. Each feature of the program was so well rendered that it would be impossible to praise any particular one taking part and judging from the persistent encores and applause those listening were more than pleased. Quite an unexpected addition to the program was the singing of Miss Carolyn Sager, soloist of St. James's Church, who rendered three solos, "When the Great Red Dawn is Shining," "The Kiss" and in response to an encore sang "The Cuckoo Clock." She was accompanied by Mrs. Nathan Freer. Miss Sager is a soloist of great promise and her singing was much appreciated.

Whether your needs call for Footwear for Dress, Business or School purposes, you will find just the kind best intended for each, in our present large assortments. We specially invite your inspection of the many novelties in both Ladies' and Men's Spring Footwear, particularly adapted to harmonize with your Easter Gown or Suit.

For the Ladies

Handsome Patent Leather Pumps and Oxfords with high heels are selling the fastest for dress wear, with increasing demands for our black kid and brown and grey oxfords with French heels and some call for our new Victory Colonial Pumps in dull leather.

The largest demand in our Ladies' Department is for the low and medium military heel oxfords in brown and black, and calf leathers as they are very pretty in appearance and have the added attraction of being suitable for business wear later.

Oxfords are out-selling pumps for the reason that they do not bend over the instep, never slip at the heel, offer greater arch support, and keep their shape and are more comfortable than pumps. The prices for our new Easter Footwear for ladies range from

$5 to $8 a Pair

For the Men

Greatest attention has been paid to the selection of our new Spring Styles of Men's Footwear than ever in the past, with the result that we are showing a larger variety of designs than formerly. There are the Cordovan Oxfords in their rich dark brown color, made on an extreme pattern for the young men desiring the greatest amount of style and service.

Another new one is the plain toe, dark brown oxfords on a narrow toe which combines comfort and style to an amazing degree. We also have the more staple designs in Men's Oxfords and Shoes in black kid, dark brown calf, and dull leather, in a large assortment of shapes.

For the Children

We believe that the chief reason for the rapid growth of our Children's Shoe Department is the fact that we give the greatest amount of attention to the proper fitting of the children's growing feet. We are showing this Spring several new styles in Children's Shoes all made on nature shaped lasts.

We find high top, rich dark brown dressy shoes, selling fastest just now followed closely by black kid and calf, also white high shoes in the order named with just a limited call for pumps and oxfords. Let us demonstrate that the best place to buy children's footwear is at our store.

Ladies' and Men's lines of Hosiery are gaining friends daily due to the fact that they give the greatest amount of service for the money invested.

WAS SHIPS' HAVEN

Lough Swilly of Great Value to Allied Fleets.

Deep Water, Inlet Formed Break in Towering Rocks That Form the Coast Line of North Donegal, on the Irish Coast.

The destroyer guard is gone, from Lough Swilly. The Yankee ships no longer round the grim black heights of Knockalla. The hamlets of Buncrana and Letterkenny have settled back into the untroubled quiet of the north Donegal peasant towns.

Before the war Lough Swilly was little known to the outside world, observes the Kansas City Times. Few ships ever entered between the forbidding walls of granite that rise on either side of the inlet. But the war made it a haven for merchant ships, a base for destroyers, and the only home for the wandering traveler fleet of that section of the sea ever had.

The "lough" is pronounced as though spelled l-o-k-h. It is the Irish cousin of the Scottish "loch," and a not far distant relative of the English "lake."

Sheer and sinister rise the cliffs of north Donegal. They form one of the most forbidding coast lines anywhere in the world. To the steamer torpedoed off this coast there was little hope, for there was no chance there to beach a vessel. When the big 14,000-ton Flavia was hit off the Donegal coast last August, she stayed up three hours, but was lost because she could not limp the 50 miles or so to a spot where there was a break in those dark walls of stone.

Lough Swilly is such a break in the towering rocks of the coast line. It is a narrow inlet of water running back into County Donegal some thirty miles. And it is deep enough all the way for ships of heavy draught. It was of incalculable value to the allied fleets and merchant shipping during the war, because it offered alike a haven and well-placed base for operations against the marauding submarines that slipped around the coast of Scotland.

Past Bloody Foreland and Tory Island, where the legendary Fenian pirates made their haven, swung the convoys on their way to Londonderry, Belfast and Glasgow. And there, too, was a favorite hunting ground of the U-boats. A seemingly perpetual mist and thick rain hung over the sea thereabouts; periscopes, were difficult to glimpse, and the course of the merchant squadrons was constricted and easy to follow. So it came to be that many destroyers and trawlers gathered in the vicinity of Lough Swilly. And Buncrana and Letterkenny formed an acquaintance with the outer world.

They are tiny villages of thatched cottages, with a white, high-steeped church in each, and they are indistinguishably behind in the march of the ages. But they are proud of their history, and the old patriarchs between puffs of their daddies will tell one that the story of Donegal begins with Connall Noigallach, the son of Niall Noigallach himself. And beyond that Irish history fades away into the haze of time.

Reviving Heraldry.

In the use of devices and weapons that linked the great war with the wars of preceding centuries, the adoption of a kind of heraldry by the airman revived also the individuality of medieval shields and banners. Sometimes this heraldry turned out to be a mistaken symbolism, as in the case of the German aviator who emblazoned his fighting plane with a Bavarian lion in pursuit of a French cock. The emblems varied according to taste: an Indian shooting an arrow, the flying stork, the Indian head with which Luther decorated his machine; the winged serpent, an ancient token of wisdom and speed; a dove, and a comet. In an older time such insignia would, no doubt, have become hereditary. In the twentieth century they served simply to express the brave gaiety and humor of youth.

Artificiality Fled.

The long line of limousines whirling down the avenue to modistes and afternoon teas stopped short as a tall policeman signaled for a right of way. Under his care a stalwart lad in khaki escorted his little gray-haired mother, limping, glancing from side to side, to safety and the other side of the street. In the foremost car sat a beautiful woman in the sunny thirties, dressed like the car in which she sat in every detail. The last touch that marked the lady of elegant leisure was the perky little Pekinese she held tucked away under her arm. And then she who watched saw the modiste, her eyes on the boy, wipe her eyes with a half apologetic brush of her handkerchief, dropping her toy as a feeling wiped out artificiality.—New York Sun.

Tillage Implements That Count

Massey-Harris No. 28 Disc Harrow

are those that give you a real service both in the quality of their work and in the length of their life.

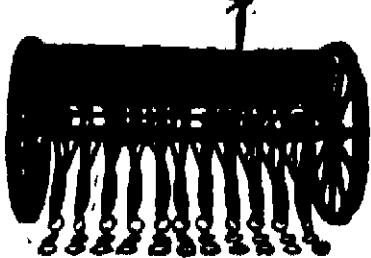

Massey-Harris Spring Tooth Harrow

MASSEY-HARRIS HARROWS AND DRILLS

Are of that kind. They are the outgrowth of nearly 70 years of experience in implement building and embody the latest and most approved principles for advantageous operation. No more efficient Disc than the Massey-Harris No. 28 has yet been conceived. Built as it is, with a hot riveted angle steel frame, wood bearings of an improved type, and a centre pressure device that gives you positive control of the cutting depth, it furnishes equipment that meets the requirement in every respect. Equally as good tools are found in the Massey-Harris Spring Tooth Harrow and in the Massey-Harris No. 12 Drill.

12 Drill, both of which will help you considerably in your Spring operations. The Harrow has removable steel shoes or runners that are of a higher carbon, and accordingly more wear resisting, than those usually employed in harrows of its type. The Drill is noted for its accurate sowing, double force feed grain runs, its substantial construction and its convenience of operation. 52 changes of the feed from each side of its grain runs and 56 changes of its fertilizer feed are available without using extra parts.

OLIVER CHILLED PLOWS

Also, are among the tools that count in the service they render. The extreme hardness of their chilled metal, combined with the unequalled uniformity of its temper which is produced in the act of forming, and the perfect outline of the mouldboards which causes the unusual durability. Furthermore, they are remarkably light in draft, handle easily and produce work that always pleases. Both of these lines.

RAINBOW AND ROLLING PIN.

Our Ancestors Not Behind Us in Naming Gowns—A Costume Tea.

That mirror of fashion, Godey's Lady's Book of 1844, says: "Duty is invariable, fashion is fluctuating." In the general upheaval of neighborhood attics for costumes of the olden time, how true this adage proves. Where are the sloping shoulders flat chests and wasp-like waists of our grandmothers? The athletic and untrammeled granddaughters find themselves confronted by a will-nich hopeless task in stretching their foremothers' frail gowns over their more ample figures. Amongst the gowns which will appear at the costume tea given in the chapel of the Rondout Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, April 23, is one called the rainbow and another design called the rolling pin. A shirred white silk bridal bonnet nearly a hundred years old will be worn. A surprising number of head bags have survived the ravages of time and a case has been secured to safeguard their exhibit. The tea will be held from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9. A program of old songs will be rendered at 4 o'clock and at 8 light refreshments will be served and a silver offering received.

Miles of Cents.

Nearly two miles of cents raised among the office force of Thomas B. Rush, surveyor of the port of New York, were given to the Salvation Army as the Surveyors' Customs Welfare association's contribution toward happy holidays for the poor. A mile of cents was the goal set for the collection, about $820 being an estimate for that amount, but a sum of $1,500 was collected. The box containing the flood of copper required ten men to lift it.

PRINTERS' INK EDITOR DEAD

Brilliant Director of Well Known Publication Was Nephew of Dr. Gage-Day And Well Known Here.

Dr. Mary Gage-Day of this city has just returned from West Orange, N. J., where she was called by the serious sickness and sudden death of her nephew, Lynn C. Wright, managing editor of Printers' Ink. Mr. Wright had many friends in Kingston who will be shocked to learn of his death as he was a young man of great promise and splendid character.

Mr. Wright died at St. Mary's Hospital, Orange, where he had gone for a slight operation, which in itself was successful. Later other pneumonia developed and then bronchial pneumonia from which he died. The funeral services were held from his late home, 5 Harvard Terrace, West Orange. Associated with Printers' Ink for ten years, that paper pays him a very high tribute. He was in his thirty-ninth year, and though so young a man, he had been connected with the editorial staff of Outing before being connected with Printers' Ink. A graduate of Cornell University, and a Phi Delta Sigma man, he has always shown journalistic gifts and talents. He was most highly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact on the magazine of which he was the managing editor, and in its tribute to his memory, it is written: "The friendly and human note characterized everything that he did. He could reject a manuscript in terms so that the disappointed contributor would reply in a letter of thanks as though some great favor had been done him. This talent was simply the natural expression of a mind wholly sympathetic to the aims and ambitious of others, and of a frank, honest, genuine personality. Hundreds of men holding big and little positions in the advertising world will recall, as they read these words, the happy and pleasant touch which he added to even the most ordinary business communication and will feel, even though they have never met him in person, that they have lost a real friend.

"As to Printers' Ink, it loses a wise counsellor and an enthusiastic and brilliant worker."

Mr. Wright is survived by a widow and one daughter.

FINE EASTER FOODS AT LAY'S SATURDAY SALE

Some of us have fasted during Lent—some of us didn't—but all will agree that there is no better breakfast for Easter or any other morning than mild sugar-cured ham or bacon—the kind that leaves a lingering memory of juicy, delicate flavor, with just a suggestion of the "tang" of hickory log smoke.

We also wish to announce that we shall discontinue the making of Bockwurst after Easter. Saturday's last opportunity to obtain some of these dainty tid-bits will be given for 1919.

For Easter Sale Saturday we have laid in a specially fine line of meats and poultry, and as we expect a tremendous rush on that day we ask patrons to order early so as to insure prompt delivery.

Disappears Western Terminal.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
 Albany, April 18.—Governor
 Smith today vetoed the Macchold bill for $500,000 for the completion of construction of large canal terminals at Rochester and Buffalo.

MONEY IN THAT.

Self Made Man—After all, does it seem to be a success?
 Money—It does if the fact and money is yours to use and you are to be.

Found Platinum Beds.

Dr. Henschel C. Parker of Columbia university, while on an exploring expedition to Alaska last summer, discovered extensive platinum beds in the Seward and Tenina valleys in the Cook Inlet country. He brought out a large number of ore samples on his return to the States, and is now engaged in extensive tests of the metal. He expects to establish a plant for handling the ore when he goes back to Alaska next spring.
 "The Alaska platinum ore is low grade," said Parker, "but it is there in abundance. It will have to be handled in large quantities and under scientific methods of sorting to make it pay. The question of its commercial value is simply one of engineering.
 With the end of the war and the consequent wide use of platinum for jewelry, I believe the Alaska beds will prove a valuable source of world supply."

Sure, That's Him.

"Who was the beautiful looking man who was just a day ago?" queried the city editor.
 "Oh, it is a very old story," answered the writer.
 "Who was he, and where was he?"
 "How do you know he was a day ago?"
 "I know it was his 'the surgeon' of this town."

Retrospect That is Vain

Mournful Man Has Come to Realize That All Things That Are to Be, Will Be.

"I sometimes think as I watch the efficient workings of a cream separator," said the stoop-shouldered man,
 "how much happier my life might have been could I but have had when I was first married a separator, operated somewhat on the same principle, into which my wife's relatives could have been thrust, the crank turned and by centrifugal or centrifugal force—I can never remember which is which—the two kinds divided, like the sheep and the goats of Holy Writ."
 "That of one spirit would have come the undesirable ones—those who considered my cherished theories, disagreed with me on various subjects, and judged at my lack of faculty, the while they borrowed money from me and paid not again, and more, they were permitting, each of my Sunday arguments as fired them, and from the other spirit would have emerged the good ones—those who tried to pay their way by being sympathetic and tactful, who were diplomatic enough to agree with me when I did not make any particular difference, and occasionally lent me money and were not forever doing me to get it back. But, of course, nothing of the kind was then or ever will be invented. Man was made to mourn and his wife's life was made to see that he does mourn."

TO PASS STATE TAX BILLS TODAY

Including Graduated Tax On Income Of 1 to 3 Per Cent—New Bill Places Limitation On City Expenditures.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
 Albany, April 18.—Legislative leaders today agreed to abandon the Davenport bill which sought to limit the tax to be raised on real estate in cities of the state and instead substituted a bill placing a limitation on expenditures for the cities. A graduated scale of limitation will be incorporated in the bill, which is being drafted for introduction some time today. The tax bills constituting the program by which the legislators hope to fill the state's depleted treasury, are on the calendars in both houses today and before the session adjourns tonight they will probably be passed.

Terminal Bill Passes Senate

By Telegram to The Freeman.
 Albany, April 18.—The senate today passed the Walton-Brush bill appropriating $350,000 for construction of large canal terminals at Kingston, Newburgh, Poughkeepsie and Yonkers. The bill must go to the assembly for concurrence in senate amendments, before it reaches the governor.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Molnoux-Schoonmaker.
 Miss Mabel Schoonmaker daughter of Mrs. Mary Schoonmaker of Jane street, Saugerties and J. T. Molnoux of Staten Island, were married by the Rev. William Moore in the Presbyterian Church, Lakehurst, N. J. on April 11, 1919.

Scherb-Kiefer.
 The wedding of Lieut. Werner Julius Scherb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scherb, formerly of Ellenville, and Miss Blanche C. Kiefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kiefer, of Fulton street, Brooklyn, took place at the Buckingham Chateau, on March 5. The wedding was a splendid affair, the men of the party were of the navy and their uniforms added to the effect, while Lieut. Scherb was in his officer's uniform and the best man was Ensign Homer E. Frye, of the navy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Isaacs, a navy chaplain. The bridegroom is attached to the cruiser Eurydice and Mr. and Mrs. Scherb will reside in Brooklyn. Ellenville friends extend very hearty congratulations, with all good wishes for a long, happy, prosperous married life together.

Kelly-Anderson.
 The marriage of Miss Jennie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and Alfred Kelly took place at the parsonage of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church by the Rev. George M. Cranston at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Miss Emily Anderson, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and John J. Bernard acted as best man. The dinner was served and the table decorations were pink and white carnations. The bride wore a beautiful suit of dark blue and the attendant wore blue crepe de chine trimmed with satin of the same shade. Guests were present from New York, Albany and Schenectady. The presents were many and numerous, being silverware, cut glass and checks. After a trip to Schenectady and points north, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will be at home to their friends at No. 80 O'Neil street.

Seeking Uses For Lignites

Federal Bureau of Mines Will Make Investigation of What May Be New Fuel Supply.

The bureau of mines will make an investigation to determine the commercial and economical value of lignites and the practicability of their utilization in production of fuel oil, gasoline substitutes, ammonia, tar, solid fuel, gas for power and other purposes, under the terms of a senate bill which the house of representatives adopted. An appropriation of $100,000 was voted. It was argued that the object of the investigation is to demonstrate the commercial value of lignite, which is one-third of the coal deposits of the nation.

A vast volume of the deposits is on government land, and Texas has approximately 23,000,000 tons. The official report says there is bituminous coal in Texas, but not sufficient to supply the railroads, and in urging the passage of the bill Representative Wingo of Arkansas told the house that proper development of lignite in Texas with its full uses demonstrated would save an annual fuel bill to the people of that state of $17,000,000.—Houston Post.
